This is an interesting thread, and tracks with what I've seen: Among QAnon women, lots of overlap between the stay-at-home mom / religious / MLM participant set, as well as the stay-at-home mom / New Age / wellness / MLM participant set. Isolated women seeking purpose & community

> A very personal thread about this story and why I increasingly believe addressing the rot caused by QAnon will be one of the Biden administration\u2019s most important and most difficult tasks. https://t.co/oe1jNGYG4R
