1. Why did Epstein want Zorro Ranch?

 23 miles away is Santa Fe.

"This was once a drugstore, Zook's Pharmacy, that doubled as a base for Russian espionage; in between filling prescriptions and ringing up customers, deep

2. cover Stalinist spies here plotted the death of Leon Trotsky and later coordinated efforts to steal the secrets of the atomic bomb from Los Alamos (distance from Zorro Ranch: 50 miles)"
*There's the Armand Hammer United World College of the American West, a selective

3. international boarding school in Montezuma founded by Armand Hammer and PRINCE CHARLES, originally a resort hotel built on a hot springs sacred to the Jicarilla Apache, the previous inhabitants of the Sangre De Cristos
*There are also the sites where the Catholic Church hid

4. pedophile priests in local parishes, until a tsunami of lawsuits from victims forced New Mexico's largest diocese to file for bankruptcy last June. One of those places is in Jemez Springs (Distance from Zorro Ranch: 50 miles.)

5. Here, the Catholic Church still operates one of two treatment centers in the United States for pedophile priests
* A little over 80 miles northwest of Zorro Ranch is Trementina Base, a bunker and vault complex owned by the Church of Spiritual Technology—an elite order within

6. Scientology—with hardened rooms storing L. Ron Hubbard's writings
The world's first nuclear weapon, code name "Gadget," was detonated in New Mexico on July 16, 1945. Tourists can now visit the Trinity Site on the U.S. Army's White Sands Missile Range to view the epicenter of

7. a highly secret government conspiracy involving top physicists called the Manhattan Project. Trinity is a 111-mile straight line from Zorro Ranch.
*He pumped more than a quarter of a million dollars into the Santa Fe Institute (SFI), a think tank for theoretical researchers,

8. where he befriended co-founder and quark-theory pioneer Murray Gell-Mann
* an old Chevy truck with an erect rocket ship as its unloaded cargo. "Cowboy artist" Bob Davis built it for SFI's first interplanetary festival last year. The fin of the rocketship reads “9EX,” but from

9. a distance it looks like “SEX.” “Our facilities crew drives it back and forth on the Chevy truck (part of the exhibit), which has a hydraulic system under the hood for changing the rocket’s angle of inclination,” Jenna Marshall, Santa Fe Institute’s spokeswoman. Ironically,

Ghislaine used the name Janet Marshall to purchase the New Hampshire home with yet another shell account connected to Darren Indyke
