Yet another thread about white supremacist terrorism--which again, is very clearly what we are dealing with. Not just according to me, but law enforcement. So I am going to do a little explainer about what these people want and where their skinheads are at right now.

To start with, I'm not talking about the “armed protesters.” There is overlap but not all goobers with giant guns are like this. The most violent white supremacist terrorists, though, are a lot like AQ or ISIS. Again, some actively nurture that connection. https://t.co/ibK8gvbpmg

> The Base are also big AQ fans. If that confuses you, it shouldn't. At its core, this is not about ideology. Terror is terror. https://t.co/OWY4cBF9JV pic.twitter.com/R6iyoHYdkm

We know they have been actively training and recruiting current/former military and law enforcement for years. Many attempted serious terror attacks that thankfully were prevented, like this one by a Coast Guard officer who made a kill list of Democrats. https://t.co/AsvcUjDbGa

What really makes these groups similar to ISIS is that they also want to trigger the end of the world as we know it. People like that are very dangerous, and they are currently emboldened because they believe the U.S. government is on their side--for now. https://t.co/DsAfkEY5AW

They are also shitting themselves at the thought of a progressive presidential administration committed to addressing racial/gender inequality and gun control, among other markers of an evolved civilization. These are people who want to take us backward, to a darker time.

From their perspective, their entire ideology and way of life, what they have been brainwashing themselves with for God knows how long—it’s all about to slip away. Imagine the stakes for them!

They've been preparing for this moment for a long time. The USG is on high alert for insider threats and two members of Biden’s inaugural security team were removed for militia ties. Many militias overlap with or are infiltrated by white supremacist terrorists. This is no bueno.

To summarize: the Nazis are angry, and they are scared. They are also well-prepared and they are very sneaky. We saw how at the #CapitolRiot, they used the mob as camouflage to try their dirty tricks. They might try that again.

Please remember what I said about what to watch for. Let’s hope we get through this without anyone dying. Stay safe, everyone. https://t.co/d6SO6klcfX

> Ok fellow journalists. I know some of you dislike me (I\u2019m actually nice) but I hope you will see why this is important. A thread on what to watch for re: domestic terrorism while covering anything like 1/6. This is offered with the best of intentions, and in the public interest.
