If you've got a loved one who's fallen under the spell of Qanon, the next few days could be a crucial window to reach out to them. Their whole world is collapsing around them. They need help & support not mockery & derision. Try to show them a way out of this madness.

Current mood in Q circles

"I just want to throw up"

"I'm so sick of the disinformation and false hope"

"What a waste of my life"

"I feel sick"

"Burning my flag"

"Game over"

"Where is the military"

"I'm just so confused"
