A Thread on:

\U0001f536How to Save Money?

Well, if you want to live a financially stable and independent life, you need to spend wisely. And the first step in spending wisely is to make a budget.

Let's understand how the 50/30/20 Budgeting Rule can help you immensely.

■ Pick an industry and fucking dominate

https://t.co/xvYo3YbEVU

Pick an industry and fucking dominate!

Nowadays, people pick an industry but as soon as they hit a roadblock or face any sort of resistance, they step away and move on to something else without any second thought.

■ Why retail traders fail?

https://t.co/Ouxcbx9htC

Why do Retail Traders Fail ? What is Gambler's Fallacy ?
Why recovering frm a loss keeps getting difficult for retail traders with each trade they take.

Why Correct Position Sizing is Important?

■ How many monitors do you think you need to become a successful trader?

https://t.co/2CZUPyblRo

Food for thought

How many monitors do you think you need to become a successful trader?

Often you must have seen youtubers standing in front of 10-12 monitor setups and narrating their strategies. What advantage multiple screens give over single screen?
