Twitter Thread by antifa.drone

antifa.drone
@antifa_drone

Fake chats claiming to be from the Irish African community are being disseminated by the far right in order to suggest that violence is imminent from #BLM supporters. This is straight out of the QAnon and Proud Boys playbook. Spread the word. Protest safely. #georgenkencho

There is co-ordination across the far right in Ireland now to stir both left and right in the hopes of creating a race war. Think critically! Fascists see the tragic killing of #georgenkencho, the grief of his community and pending investigation as a flashpoint for action.

Across Telegram, Twitter and Facebook disinformation is being peddled on the back of these tragic events. From false photographs to the tactics ofwhite supremacy, the far right is clumsily trying to drive hate against minority groups and figureheads.
https://t.co/NL61YF380n

> Be aware, the images the #farright are sharing in the hopes of starting a race war, are not of the SPAR employee that was punched. They\u2019re older photos of a Everton fan. Be aware of the information you\u2019re sharing and that it may be false. Always #factcheck #GeorgeNkencho pic.twitter.com/4c9w4CMk5h
>
> — antifa.drone (@antifa_drone) December 31, 2020

Declan Ganley's Burkean group and the incel wing of National Party (Gearóid Murphy, Mick O'Keeffe & Co.) as well as all the usuals are concerted in their efforts to demonstrate their white supremacist cred. The quiet parts are today being said out loud.

https://t.co/r0TyU2tnvO

> There is a concerted effort in far-right Telegram groups to try and incite violence on street by targetting people for racist online abuse following the killing of George Nkencho
>
> This follows on and is part of a misinformation campaign to polarise communities at this time.
>
> — Mark Malone (@soundmigration) January 1, 2021

The best thing you can do is challenge disinformation and report posts where engagement isn't appropriate. Many of these are blatantly racist posts designed to drive recruitment to NP and other Nationalist groups. By all means protest but stay safe.

We believe efforts are being co-ordinated by the National Party leadership, with agitators like Gearóid Murphy, who local intel suggested met with NP leadership in Longford yesterday. The rest of the work is carried out online with careful rules, as several activists have shown.

Enjoy the memes, stay home.

STAY AWAY FROM PROTESTS

Don't get into arguments at work. If someone brings it up just act dumb, pretend you never heard of it and change the subject.

"But I really want to do something"

Joggers are not capable of logical reactions, they only think emotionally and have zero impulse control. Abuse them (anonymously) on Twitter and Instagram to fuel the chimp out. If you annoy them online they'll take that anger onto the streets and direct it at An Garda Síochána.

Make memes, dig up stats, turn on your VPN and get trolling.

Keep a cool head and think critically. Do not be goaded into anything online or off, that will jeapordise you or your community. This is a flashpoint and the far right are vastly outnumbered, don't give them the satisfaction of losing the head. https://t.co/yCXiATXqZb

If you wish to contribute to #AltShiteUnmasked and have info on Gearóid Murphy (Cork), Mick Chopper O'Keeffe (Waterford), Keith Woods, Kelly & Jenny O'Driscoll (Macroom), EoinDeBara (New Ross), Anthony Fitzpatrick (Finglas) Mathew Kivlehan (Sligo) or any of their lot, reach out.

These are just a small selection of the busiest accounts amplifying the NP disinformation campaign. We would also welcome any further info on Rowan Croft, "Kenny Ireland" (Gemma's minder?) or Alex Sheridan (See below). https://t.co/lDTv7bmtkr

> Can now reveal the face of the true head and "brains" behind the Irish Freedom Party.
>
> This is Alex Sheridan a man who has been advising Hermann Kelly and is the puppet master behind the party. pic.twitter.com/iYxExb5UP7
>
> — Steven Bennett (@Stevenmoblle) January 2, 2021

And as usual, Murphy has the begging bowl out. Just as he and Mick O'Keeffe did when they tried to profit off violence between minors in Cork last year. This time NP will get a cut, it seems.

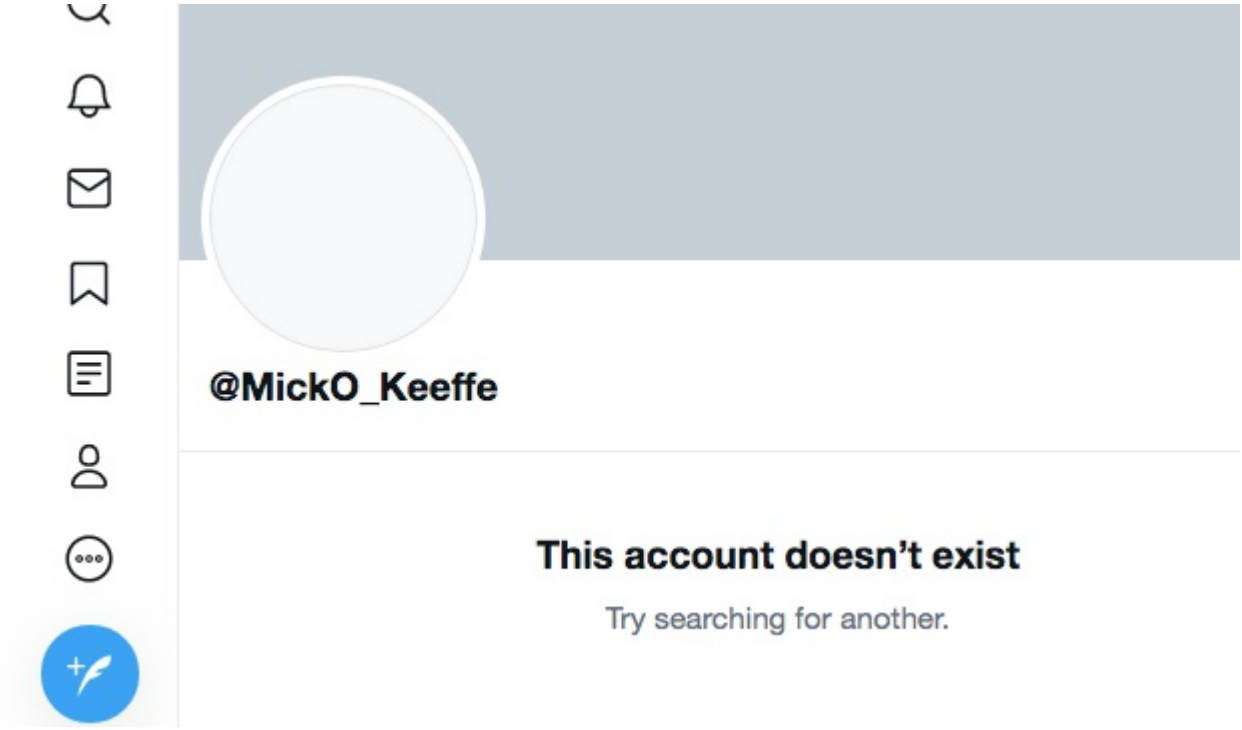

Gearóid Murphy
@gearoidmurphy_

Wayne was simply doing his job when he was randomly and viciously attacked by a FERAL THUG. A financial cushion doesn't cure trauma by itself but it helps.

Support Wayne in his recovery, organized by Tracie Askin gofundme.com

"Chopper" was unavailable for comment at this time.

For further reading here is one of several superb threads doing the rounds at the moment! https://t.co/kZKcRJBH8E

> I'm not screenshotting the tweets I've already seen. The Irish Far Right have been watching & waiting for a polarizing event like this it. They've seen how the UK's FR have successfully exploited these horrific events. Do not rise to the bait. Don't engage. Don't "debate". pic.twitter.com/PkNTR9RUp9
>
> — \U0001d5d4\U0001d5f6\U0001d5f1\U0001d5ee\U0001d5fb \U0001d5e2\u2019\U0001d5d5\U0001d5ff\U0001d5f6\U0001d5f2\U0001d5fb (@artimusfoul) December 30, 2020