Patience
https://t.co/Dj987wEn54

Most of the traders do not lack the technical skills, what they lack is Patience.

Everyone trader tries to swing the bat at every ball that comes towards them.

What you have to understand is that not all market environments are conducive to make higher returns.

A thread on FOMO
https://t.co/0oIzYijOum

FOMO is one of the main reasons people lose money in trading.

As it leads you to take suboptimal trades and makes you less patient.

But, have you ever tried to know the reason behind FOMO? \U0001f447 pic.twitter.com/xpQu1ivETJ

A thread on Independent thinking
https://t.co/FLulnlVxb9

One of the big mistakes I see traders making is: asking others what they should do with their ongoing positions.

There is a big flaw in this approach!
