Twitter Thread by Eric Rossoni

Eric Rossoni
@EricRossoni

oh where do I start.

You have every right to share your frustration & outrage towards the impeachment. You still would've been wrong, I would've criticized you for downplaying our attack on the capitol, etc. But you went further, you compared Trump to Jesus.

Trumps loss, drove these pastors crazy and mad. For 4 years they lived a fantasy and tolerated Trumps immorality, corruption, hatred, racism, anti-life and much more his whole presidency. Scandal after scandal. They built their faith around Trump being called by God and when Trump lost, it broke them. They didn't know what they would tell their followers that they were wrong and God allowed this. Some sobered up, many live in denial but some like Franklin, sold their soul for power. They preach a false God and Jesus. They compared Trump to Jesus.

As dangerous Trump has become, Trump is Trump and we expected this. But Franklin, we didn't. He went against everything he ever taught and preached. He wanted to become greater than his father and be America's pastor. He wanted to be America's pope. He was hungry for power.

Trumps loss broke him. I thought Franklin would've taken the high road and excepted the reality of Trump being a failure and needed to apologize for the incitement of an insurrection he started. Trump being impeached twice and a few rep. doing the right thing, drove him crazy.

He couldn't betray his messiah (Trump) so he rebuked these 10 republicans for not staying in line. For not bowing down to pharaoh and likened their betrayal to Jesus, that somehow Pelosi made a deal with them for them to go rogue, likening them to Judas betraying Jesus.

What Franklin did, angered the Holy Spirit, angered God and angered Jesus. Franklin turned Trump into Jesus and made him his messiah. Franklin lost his way and needs to repent. Sad thing, I dont know if he will ever return back. It's rare when I classify anyone as false.

But Franklin is not only a false pastor/evangelist, he’s probably, the most dangerous Christian I know. At least for Trump he lets you know who he is, for Franklin, he hides his hate, his white supremacy, his racism his nationalism, his idolatry. All to appear as”holy”.

What am I saying? Between Trump & Franklin, Trump tells & shows us he’s dangerous and he doesn’t care, Franklin, hides it. He doesn’t want you to know he’s a fraud, who’s failed to live to his dads standards and beyond. Franklin hunger for power, was to be greater than his dad

Franklin wanted to become the greatest evangelist America ever knew. But his pride & hunger for earthly power will come with a cost. Just like Trump, he will fail & have a major exposure. Everything that is hidden will come to the light. Franklin..... repent.

Thank you.

@threadreaderapp unroll