The CPC, and their enabling press & surrogates, wish us to believe they haven't behaved like Trump's GOP. That they haven't copied Trump tactics, to try to get it to work in Canada as well.

Here's a screenshot I made of a quote-tweet from just after the CPC leadership win, that indicates otherwise

I checked online, to see what his stance is on Covid19. Cane across an attack ad against PMJT, on O'Toole's FB from April, blaming PM & China for virus. Included clip from doctored video from G20 summit, Japan.

Not to be the Covid police but some of the celebrating at the Conservative leadership meeting does not seem to be complying with guidelines. It's a reminder how easy it is to forget to distance/wear masks etc.

during the day of the election, for CPC leader, I made a screenshot of CBC PnP's coverage - when the second ballot count had just been announced. Note that before the third ballot, Leslyn Lewis had the highest percentage of votes. You know who Dr Lewis' followers are? M*GA

Conservative MP trumpets @ErinOTooleMP being "deeply committed" to repealing the assault weapons ban and putting guns like the AR-15 back on sale in Canada. Scientific evidence and 80% of Canadians do not support making these guns more available. cc @alandrummond2. #cdnpoli

An example, early on - August 27, when Erin O'Toole promised to 'Fight' for Canadians. Where else have we heard 'fight'? Think of Trump & Cruz, when they were whipping up the crowds on Jan 6, before they mobbed the halls of Congress

Here is Charles Adler, responding to CPC MP Findlay regarding her post where she shared a conspiracy site & asked us to beware of Finance Minister Freeland. Btw, Findlay never apologized to Freeland

 You Retweeted

Charles Adler  @charlesadler · 17m

This isn't about the conspiracy site. It's about your lack of discernment in judging a message valid. You're a former associate Defense minister. You know Canada has adversaries who want to harm us. Fin Min @cafreeland is not Canada's enemy. You owe her an unambiguous apology.

Kerry-Lynne Findlay  @KerryLynneFindl · 38m

Earlier today, I thoughtlessly shared content from what I am now learning is a source that promotes hateful conspiracy theories. I have removed the tweets and apologize to anyone who thinks I would want to endorse hateful rhetoric.

Also, regarding tweet 7/, CPC leader O'Toole never penalized her for this. When asked by reporters for his comment, he hid behind his office staff & had them respond. Their statement was that MP Findlay deleted the tweet. That's it!

A tad slippery. The "hateful rhetoric" was not someone else's, thoughtlessly endorsed - it was yours, telling us to be "alarmed" by Freeland's "closeness" to Soros, as though he's obviously evil.

Press, like Postmedia's Lorrie Goldstein, are mouthpieces for the CPC. He comes to their rescue, when they're under fire from Cdns. They have not disavowed some of his Trump-like rhetoric. Here's a sample of his type of rhetoric as far as I'm concerned, as long as the writers that support the CPC have a reputation for using similar tactics as Trump & the GOP, the CPC should not be using them to further their message(s) - if they wish Cdns to believe they're not Trump-lite

Here is a screenshot I made of two consecutive tweets from @Justin_Ling, when he was reporting on outgoing CPC leader Scheer's farewell speech. Read this, and ask if what Scheer said, isn't something Trump or Sen Cruz would say

Justin Ling ✓ @Justin_Ling · Aug 23

Outgoing Conservative Party leader Andrew Scheer is currently painting the Trudeau government as a Stalinist/Chavista/Castroist regime that has left "harm and misery" in its wake.

Can't believe the public never came around to this guy!

Mr O'Toole thinks the "Liberal brand" is: Climate Change, Indigenous Reconciliation, & Gender. In other words, he doesn't think these are files of interest to all Canadians. I beg to differ. The only ones who don't think these are important, are his type of conservative

Mr O'Toole, listening to this clip, I see you've singled out three files to dismiss as simply "Liberal brand" - Climate Change, Indigenous Reconciliation, & Gender. Are you going on record, saying that Conservatives don't care about these items?

10:12 PM · Sep 19, 2020 · Twitter Web App

btw, regarding tweet 15/ - the CPC leader never did answer my question. Also, I ask you to consider - is climate change, indigenous reconciliation & gender, also slammed by Trump and the GOP? Consider how 45 et al. have treated these topics. Parallels?

17/

the CPC have used the RCAF as a form of branding. Please check my pinned tweet-thread for more on this topic. Trump has also surrounded himself with law & order types & made a big deal about Space Force & so on. Both CPC & 45 use military, and similar orgs, as brand

18/

I also see a parallel between 45 and his focus on industries that are transitioning out as well as primarily staffed by males, and the same focus from the CPC. My screenshot doesn't show the date, but the file date is Sept. 23, 2020

BC did freeze its tax, but it was already at $40 per tonne.

The federal price is at $30 now and will go up to $40 per tonne in April 2021.
