Let's put a thread together of folks who have stated that President Trump invited them to DC on January 6th, shall we?

First up is Amy Kremer who started the Tea Party and was head of Women for Trump during the election and then started Women for America First to organize a national bus tour for Trump to contest the election results and plan all of the DC rallies including Jan 6th.

Amy Kremer states on bus tour for Trump 1/5:
"Pres. Trump hasn't asked much from us. He's asked for our vote and he's asked for us to come to Washington, DC on Jan 6 to stand with him...The President has asked us to come and we will be there."

Amy Kremer's partner James Lyle also confirms Trump invited them to the rally on January 6th which he shares with the crowd gathered outside for the national bus tour for Trump on 1/5. He also mentions how Amy's daughter Kylie is up in DC setting up the rally.

In this OAN interview Kylie Jane Kremer discusses plans for the January 6th Trump March to "stop the steal". She states that the White House will be the backdrop for it and that Trump is aware retweeting her post "the CAVALRY is coming, Mr. President."

Here is Q-Anon conspiracist Ann Vandersteel stating after the January 6th insurrection "we were summoned, we were asked by President Trump to come to Washington, DC and if we couldn't make it we were asked to go to our capitol and demand a free and fair election."
