Democracy Dies in Darkness

The revelation that officers participated in the chaos was the latest hit for law enforcement's reputation, coming on the heels of a year in which police violence spurred nationwide protests and activists called for cutting police funding. As photographs and videos of some off-duty officers at the riot emerged on social media, some residents back home felt betrayed, while police officials worried about a black eye for the entire profession's credibility.

He stormed the Capitol yesterday with a taser concealed in his pants. He was in the process of stealing a portrait of Tip O'Neill when he accidentally & repeatedly discharged the taser. He tased himself in the balls until he suffered a fatal heart attack. Really. #CapitolRiots

@GOP is corrupted by foreign dictators

Marshall leads the Republican Attorneys General Association's dark-money nonprofit Rule of Law Defense Fund, which is listed as a participating organization for the March to Save America on the march's website, as are the groups Stop the Steal, Tea Party Patriots and Turning Point Action.

The website is now down, but archived versions show RLDF as a participating group.

"I am honored to lead RAGA's policy branch, the Rule of Law Defense Fund, and bring conservative attorneys general together in promotion of federalism, freedom, and the rule of law," Marshall said in a Nov. 10 statement to RAGA.
