THREAD: I went down a rabbit hole with a Trump supporter this morning to try to get an idea of why they think the way they do. I didn't really learn anything, but you might find it interesting. She's a 60-year old grandmother who seems very nice, by the way. @atrupar

You seem to think this is almost over?!? Do you know voter fraud was committed? Not only that but foreign interference, and it's called treason. Trying to steal power from a sitting president is a crime. This is just getting started!

It was over months ago. Why do you continue to believe people like Trump and this Tank joker when they lie to you over and over again? Maybe ask yourself that question.

Well since I actually watch Trump speeches and research his executive orders and reform. I don't rely on some source of corrupt media to give me the truth I know that he's not lying and has more integrity in his toes than all of DC & politicians together

Do you have people in your life who tell you how crazy you are and beg you to come back to Earth? If so, listen to them. If not, get some.

Yes I do and like I'm telling you I try to tell them but people who are brainwashed don't know they are so 🙄, don't worry you will see soon!

Tell me what it is you think you we are going to see soon. What are you expecting to happen, and when?

What's coming? Do you think after Biden is sworn in that Trump will somehow reclaim the presidency later this year?

There is way to much to explain in a tweet. That's not the real Biden compare pictures. Anyone who inaugurates them is committing a crime. The election fraud had foreign interference and there will be lots of arrests... stay tuned much more to come.....

So, the person who's been giving speeches and interviews since the election and will be sworn in tomorrow is a Biden impostor? Where is the real Joe Biden?

Did you compare his faces? His eyes, ears? You tell me! I'm pretty sure I know but why would you care what a crazy person knows or says?!?

I care because I want to know how someone like you can end up so far down the rabbit hole. Let's get back to Biden. If you think that's an impostor, what happened to the real Biden and what's the point of having an impostor?

So... you're offering photos from 30 years ago and today as evidence the current Biden is an impostor? Was he an impostor through the Obama years? When was he replaced with the new Biden? Was he killed? If so, who killed him?

Killed or executed??? I say executed. There's lots of players and lots of doubles happening right now. You need to see what's happening to wake you from the indoctrination and brainwashing

Executed by our government for high crimes and treason. You wouldn't have to ask these questions if you turned off the "news"& actually looked into some rabbit holes for yourself

So... the Trump administration secretly executed Joe Biden and installed an impostor to take his place who went on to beat Trump? Is Jill Biden in on it, or is the impostor so good that only you can tell the difference, but not his wife of 44 years?

She's "in on it" how? She was involved with his crimes against humanity? If so, why wasn't she executed or arrested? Or is she an impostor, too? Does she know her husband's dead?

How many politicians have been executed in your estimation?
That's a lot of husbands and wives who either haven't noticed or are happy with their new impostor spouses.

I'll wrap up this conversation by saying: you are about to find out you have been living in a false reality manufactured by controllers that have enslaved human beings for a very very long time! Prepare yourself for shocking truth!
