#SeQuent_2 was my 3rd and final warning ■■

Long story short :: If you follow someone - make sure you do actually 'follow' ...

When the focus is on capability, terminal value and ESOPs - reported earnings recovery would have to wait. No science. No commerce. Pure basics ■

> Stock traded at 336.50 on 29 June. #Oversmart money was looking at limit-up closing followed by a next day gap up opening to make an annualized CAGR of 5000%
