Q1FY22 Concall Key Takeaways

Strategy refresh: Management aims to maintain a balance between sales growth & margins. Macro factors like demography, low per capita consumption, premiumisation etc are favourable levers for the company to exploit. The strategic review of popular brands is on track

11/n

Business environment: The company's units were back to full operations by June-end. Off trade continues to show promise whereas on-trade remains subdued due to restricted operational hours, capacity constraints. Management expects on-trade to recover but at a slower pace.

12/n

Raw material inflation: The company has seen some inflation in packaging material YoY as well as some inflationary trend in glass bottle prices. The company has mitigated the pressure through price hikes towards the end of Q1 which will reflect in Q2.

13/n

ENA: Ethanol policy will get declared towards Oct/Nov'21 and the company expects to remain stable until then. The company expects higher prices in the short term but should correct once capacities get added.

14/n

West Bengal: The company is working with the West Bengal govt to reduce levies and increase prices.

15/n

Adverse Price/ Mix: The company witnessed -4.2% realization on prices due to adverse state and portfolio mix. North India (higher share of Scotch) witnessed higher impact of 2nd wave of COVID as compared to other regions which resulted in an inferior mix.

16A/n

Management highlighted this as an one off as company has successfully delivered higher realisations over the last 12-16 quarters. 16B/n

Innovation & renovation: company has renovated Black Dog whiskey with new & improved liquid and packaging. The product has been launched in - PUNJ, HAR & TELE and will be extended nationally by year-end. Initial feedback remains been positive & repeat rates have been good.

17/n

Non whiskey spirits: Company has seen a lot of traction in white spirits category. Vodka is a large category in white spirits and the company will revitalize its power brand 'Smirnoff' over the next 9-12 months as well as make a meaningful play in gin category.

18/n

Non-alcohol Beverages: The segment will be used primarily for brand extension purposes and not as standalone business. The segment is gaining traction in developed countries in the west therefore company will be looking at trends in the segment.

19/n

Distribution: The company gets 80-90% of its business from 35k outlets (vs 50-60k retail outlets it has access to). Store level constraints would need to be removed in order to make further headways. 20 /n

Hip Bar disinvestment The company sold its 26% stake for a consideration of Rs5.2mn. The company had procured home delivery licences for Karnataka but the platform did not provide any differentiation vs delivery aggregators. The company will work with delivery aggregators.

21/n

Capex: The capex will remain in the same range as previous years.
