@AnyBodyCanFly Created this thread in 2018, as saw this coming. Covid actually accelerated the trend ... next disruption will be lead by biosciences. Unseen today be seen few years out

Technology is enabling new ways of credibly accessing medical knowledge via smart phones / tablets.

Android, iOS have > 5k health / fitness apps like @Medscape, pointing to a future where the Tech. drives a part of medical knowledge and therapeutic guidance instead of a Doctor!
