Management Checklist & Other Business Parameters !

Most of this needs to be done manually. Take it as homework■

Maithan Alloy FII (1.87%) & Promoter Shareholding(74.99%).

Less FII better it is.

Check Change in Promoter Holding in last 3yrs (insider Buying) in 1n (above)

5n

Management Analysis:

Criteria		Value	Remarks
A) Subjective parameters
1	Background check of promoters & directors	Web search	There should not be any information questioning the integrity of promoters & directors
2	Management succession plans	Good succession plan should be in place	Salary being paid to potential successors should be in line with their experience
B) Objective Parameters
3	Salary of promoters vs. net profits	No salary increase with declining profits/losses	promoter should not have a history of seeking increase in remuneration when the profits of the company declined in past
4	Project execution skills	Green/brownfield project execution	Company should have shown good project execution skills with cost and time overruns.
			Exclude capacity increase by mergers & acquisitions.
5	Consistent increase in dividend payments	Dividend CAGR > 0	Dividends should be increasing with increase in profits of the company
6	Promoter shareholding	> 51%	Higher the better
7	Promoter buying the shares	Insider buying ++	If promoter of a company buys its shares, investors should buy too
8	FII shareholding	~ 0%	the lower the better

Margin of Safety !

EY Vs 10yr G-Sec

SSGR > Current & Over a Period Sales Growth. Higher SSGR better it is.

Maithan Alloy SSGR Calculation @drvijaymalik

FCF vs CFO ratio over 7 to 10yrs. Higher the ratio better it is.

Final Checklist for Buying Stocks - Dr Vijay Malik#Peacefulinvesting

<https://t.co/pjxll2bkv> via @drvijaymalik

— Dr Vijay Malik (@drvijaymalik) July 1, 2020

Missed to post one point in Financial Checklist (2n) above.

If CFO meets outflows of CFI & CFF it would be great.

For Maithan Alloys in FY 2019 CFO is 15 Cr short of meeting the outflow of CFI & CFF.
