This has been making a lot of noise among #Iran's netizens.

Hamas co-founder Mahmoud al-Zahder said in a recent interview that in 2006 Qassem Soleimani gave them $22 million in cash.

This is how the regime spends the Iranian people's

2)

Why is this important?

The West may further appease Iran's regime & the mullahs are demanding the U.S. lift sanctions in order to gain access to billions of dollars.

"As long as Iran has money, that means we here have money, too," said Lebanese Hezbollah chief Hassan Nasrallah.

Obama's 2015 Iran nuclear deal provided $150 billion in credit & $1.8 billion in cash for Tehran's mullahs.

He (Ghassem Soleimani) transferred weapons to Palestine. Everyone was surprised, asking how it was possible to send weapons to the besieged Gaza Strip?

#Iran has spent about $30 billion in Syria since the start of the war in the country in 2011, said a former Iranian lawmaker in

#Iran's apologists/lobbyists have long said—"There's nothing to see here!"

@AliVaez says the $700 million/year that Iran provides for Hezbollah "is truly not that much at all" (!)

Of course, he lives in the US & cares not that 60 million of Iran's 84 million live in poverty.

But don't be surprised. Vaez is a protégé of former Iranian regime president Ali Akbar Hashemi Rafsanjani.

Let's talk about a recent WaPo piece written by #Iran apologist/lobbyist @AliVaez teaming up with a former Iranian FM Ardeshir Zahedi.

Question: Why don't they ask Iran's mullahs to run a "stable & normal" country?

Iran's network of apologist/lobbyists are busy pushing @JZarif's talking points that U.S. sanctions on Iran's regime must be lifted.

They claim sanctions are killing ordinary Iranians.

Yet they will never talk about how money going into Iran fuels terrorism.

As we speak Iran is delaying any purchase of the Covid-19 vaccine.

Why? If they do, it will reveal that U.S. sanctions do not prevent the import of food & medicine.

Then they, nor their apologists/lobbyists, can no longer demand the U.S. to lift sanctions on Iran.
