#Putin: 'We consider #Israel a Russian-speaking state' (2019)
The richest Jews in the world gathered in #Moscow for the International Leadership Reunion (ILR) conference.

LR is a key event of the Keren Hayesod International Charitable Foundation, established at the World Zionist Congress in 1920. Today, various projects in education, culture, spiritual, and charitable spheres are financed from its funds. Among the members of the elite club are the richest families on the planet: the Rothschilds, the Brazilian Safra family, South African Kaplanov, Canadian – Bronfmanov (Bronfman).

There are also businessmen of European origin from Russia. Their names were not disclosed in the explanatory note, but, for example, Mr. Vekselberg was noticed at the Russian Congress. As the aide to the President of the Russian Federation, Yuri Ushakov explained, this powerful organization has branches in 45 countries. "In fact, this is the main source of funding for programs in various countries that are associated with supporting world Jewry," Ushakov noted.

The organization's congresses are held in world capitals. Usually, these events are attended not only by the world business elite, but also by politicians of the highest rank (they were attended by Obama, Berlusconi, and Juan Carlos). This, of course, is not the only reason why Vladimir Putin visited the former Moscow hotel yesterday. It is known that the Russian leader prefers to live with Jews in peace. And there are also many Jews among his friends.

The conference started back on Sunday. During these days, representatives of the foundation visited key sights of Moscow with excursions, read a prayer for the dead Jewish soldiers at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in the Alexander Garden, listened to the performance of the Red Army choir, saw the dances of Russian ballerinas and Don Cossacks, had lunch and dinner at the best gastronomic venues in the capital.

Keren Hayesod – United Israel Appeal is the preeminent worldwide fundraising organization for Israel, which was established in London in 1920, to serve as the fundraising arm of the Jewish People and the Zionist Movement.

JEWISH NATIONAL COUNCIL CALLS ON PALESTINE JEWS TO COMBAT TERRORISTS

JERUSALEM, Feb. 20. (JTA) -- The Jewish population of Palestine was called on today to combat vigorously the persons responsible for the recent assassinations and bombings in which several government offices were destroyed and two police officials killed.

In a statement sharply condemning the terrorists, the executive committee of the Jewish National Council declared that "a band of lunatics is attempting to impose a regime of terror. These terrorists," the statement continued, "have indicated that they will not refrain from even the meanest crimes to carry out their intentions." It urged the Palestine Jews "to oppose these acts of terror with all their resources." In a note delivered to the Palestine press this past week, a secret Jewish military organization calling itself the "Irgun Zvai Leumi," assumed responsibility for the bombings and murders and stated that it would continue its activities until Palestine was opened to unlimited Jewish immigration.
